

Pillar of Lights Meditation

Adam-EI David and Brian Grattan

Sit or lie down comfortably, with your spine straight and legs uncrossed. Inwardly look upward through the Crown Chakra to the Source. Visualize it, feel it or simply intend that it is about 6 to 8 feet above the head. It can perhaps be seen as a sphere of light or a 12 faceted white star. Take three deep breaths in through your nose and out through your mouth to center yourself. Visualize the White Light flooding down through your Crown Chakra, then into your neck, down into your shoulders and arms. Pouring through your chest, and down your torso; into your buttocks, and your thighs; then your calves, and down into your ankles. Into your toes and the soles of your feet. You feel energized and calm. Take three more deep breaths.

Taking 3 very deep breaths, in through the nose and out through the mouth, let us move into our heart temple. It is a golden pyramid of lights with a brilliant white crystalline capstone. Standing in the four corners are the four Archangels of the heart. We see ourselves seated upon our golden thrones in our naked, innocent, golden white bodies of light.

Looking across in front of us to the facing wall we see a brilliant circular fireplace and let us ignite the fire with our sacred breath NOW, activating the Council of Twelve Rays of the Source I AM. Bask in the radiation of the 12, your Council of 12. Place upon your feet, as you now bend down seated upon the throne, Golden Sandals encrusted with precious stones.

Place upon your beautiful Light filled Body, Golden Robes and above the left breast on the robe, see your sacred name in golden letters of flame and acknowledge yourself as the I AM. Place in your right hand now a golden orb of your spiritual authority, surmounted by a divine symbol of the union of the moon and the sun in silver and gold and ignite, ignite, ignite the Light I AM.

In your left hand place a golden staff with twelve diamond shaped crystals, your symbol of power as a Co-Creator. See the descending Pillar of Lights from Source I AM NOW placing upon your head a golden crown encrusted with 12 diamonds. This is the symbol of your Divinity.

Now, as you breathe deeply three times, inhaling through your nose and exhaling through your mouth, bring the throne to life and to a new level of vibration. See Khamael standing within your body, Crown to Base Chakra, in a pillar of living crystal flame of brilliant Rose Pink.
